Points to Consider

When selecting the winner ask yourself the following questions:

- Do the illustrations represent the story in a way that increases your understanding and appreciation of the story?

- Do the illustrations match the story, theme or mood?

- Are the illustrations a good example of the artistic technique used? Examples of possible techniques include: watercolor, photographs, pen and ink, oils, cut paper, collage, gouache, colored pencil, and mixed media.

- Are the illustrations appropriate for the intended audience (children up to age 14)?
